

Fellow Educators,

Good News! We will have Literacy First Workshops!! We have 4 Literacy First Workshops scheduled for Enid. All of the trainings will be at NWOSU Enid Campus during the week of August 2 -6, 2010. Please register by Friday, July 16.

(This is such a fantastic opportunity; we do not want to loose having the workshops in Enid. Classes must have a minimum number of participants or they can be cancelled.)

On August 2 – 6:

Phase 1 – Primary (Grades K – 2) course # K605 (We need 10 more people for this class.)

Phase 1 – Intermediate (Grades 3 – 6) course # 3928 (We need 10 more people for this class.)

(For information about each workshop, click on it to read the description.)

On August 3 -5:

Phase 2 – Primary (Grades K – 2) course # AK172 (This class currently has a waiting list.)

Phase 2 – Intermediate (Grades 3 – 6) course # L518 (This class needs 15 more participants.)

(For information about each workshop, click on it to read the description.)

Register on-line through East Central University at:

<http://www.ecok.edu/ce/index.htm> Then on the left side of the screen:

Click on continuing Education – Click on Literacy First

Click on Enroll Now. Enter the appropriate course numbers, dates and location as listed above.

(If you do not check your school email during the summer, you may want to put your home email address.)

Reminder: There is no cost to teachers to attend the training. Instead, teachers are paid $40.00 a day by the Oklahoma Commission for Teacher Preparation.
