

Teacher Center

You'll find a variety of rich resources and fun training options in this teacher-focused section of the unitedstreaming.com website.

Interactive training

Learn the best and easiest ways to search, stream, and download video, clips, and images in these self-paced lessons. Download certificate for optional CEU credit.

Webinars

Collaborate in live hour-long sessions with a unitedstreaming trainer, using WebEx and your phone line. Choose from a variety of topics and times each week—free with online registration.

School-based Workshops

Find out about options for on-site, face-to-face training sessions in your school or district computer lab. Workshops can be geared to needs of teachers, trainers, and media specialists.

Trainers Toolkit

Get the word out to other teachers through these downloadable training tools. Account administrators will find helpful information on storage management and technical specifications.

Lesson Plans

Make the most of unitedstreaming videos by using curriculum-based lesson plans to maximize student learning. Choose from hundreds of samples for all grades and subject areas.

Integration Ideas

Engage your students with fifty practical ideas for using the rich multi-media content of unitedstreaming to maximum effect.

FAQs

For a quick answer, view short (2-3 minute) movie tutorials, developed by Atomic Learning, on teacher's most Frequently Asked Questions about integrating unitedstreaming in their instruction.

Higher Education

Discovery Education offers post-secondary resources and projects to help colleges and universities implement unitedstreaming digital media in individual courses or degree programs.